The Top 100 Washington Wines of 2016

It's a tremendous time to be a Washington wine drinker.

Best of the Best: The Top 10 Washington Wines of 2016:

Latta Wines Roussanne Lawrence Vineyards Columbia Valley 2013

"Roussanne is a bit player in the world of Washington whites but this wine shows that, in the right site and in the right hands, the Rhone-native grape can excel here. Beeswax and honeysuckle flavors coat the palate and lead to an extended finish that only adds to the enjoyment."

Latta Wines Upland Vineyard Grenache Snipes Mountain 2012

"Hypertalented Andrew Latta spent nine years as winemaker for K Vintners and Charles Smith before striking out on his own. The result, just the second release from a winemaker still in his 30s, is one impressive wine with layered aromas and flavors of raspberry, cherry, clove, and mineral."

Andrew Latta named one of Washington's Six Winemakers to Watch!
